BACKGROUND INFO

- Studies show that technology usage had dramatically increased due to the COVID19 lockdowns.
- Studies suggest that people have had dramatic changes in emotions due to the outbreak.
- Covid-19 has not only affected home life, but schools and stores as well and changed certain things about family life.

OUR METHOD: SURVEY

For our method we created a survey which was posted on Fort Worth Museum of Science and History website and was viewed by 41+ people and from it we collected our results and drew our conclusion about how our emotions have been affected by COVID-19.
